International Journal of Integrated Supply Management

ICPR-Americas 2020: Special Issue on: "Supply Chain Management Challenges for Latin-American Industry Development"

Guest Editors:

Dr. Fernando Tohmé and Dr. Daniel Rossit, Universidad Nacional del Sur, Argentina

This special issue is targeted towards, but not restricted to, the papers presented at the 10th International Conference on Production Research ICPR Americas 2020 that will take place July 8-10, 2020 in Bahía Blanca, Argentina. Contributions arising from papers given at the ICPR-Americas 2020 conference should be substantially extended, and should cite the conference paper where appropriate. The deadline for submissions is ~~March 1, 2021~~. August 1, 2021.

This Special Issue of International Journal of Integrated Supply Management seeks to attract high-quality, high-impact research and state-of-the-art developments building upon methods and applications in Operations and Logistics Management. In particular we are interested in contributions analysing how traditional business processes and structures could be transformed into smart businesses, taking into account how digital transformations may redefine how firms constitute "ecosystems".
